World Peace Flame

Good evening everybody. Thank you, Lord Mayor, and thank you, Concord Interfaith, for bringing us all together in peace and for peace.

When the World Peace Flame was created in 1999 the dream was as simple as it is universal, one flame uniting all peoples of the world in peace.

Perhaps the most significant World Peace Flame is in The Hague in front of the Peace Palace, home of the United Nations International Court of Justice. It is surrounded by the World Peace Flame Pathway, where on the 27th April 2004, for the first time in history, a statement for peace was signed by 197 ambassadors representing all of the peoples of the world.

How wonderful it would be for us all to become the example of Peace to the world and to see this flame in every home, every school, every workplace, every place of decision making and every place of worship with the intention of Peace to All.

This evening you will receive a small tea light candle, lit from the WPF. You can light other candles from it and thus keep the flame of peace burning, and pass it on, with the simple intention of that one simple, yet special flame, uniting all peoples of the world in peace.

May all beings be at peace, and may all beings find the true peace within their own hearts, OM SHANTE

Bahá'í

I charge you all that each one of you concentrate all the thoughts of your heart on love and unity. When a thought of war comes, oppose it by a stronger thought of peace. A thought of hatred must be destroyed by a more powerful thought of love. Thoughts of war bring destruction to all harmony, well-being, restfulness and content.

Thoughts of love are constructive of brotherhood, peace, friendship, and happiness.

If you desire with all your heart, friendship with every race on earth, your thought, spiritual and positive, will spread; it will become the desire of others, growing stronger and stronger, until it reaches the minds of all men.

Do not despair! Work steadily. Sincerity and love will conquer hate. How many seemingly impossible events are coming to pass in these days! Set your faces steadily towards the Light of the World. Show love to all; 'Love is the breath of the Holy Spirit in the heart of Man'. Take courage! God never forsakes His children who strive and work and pray! Let your hearts be filled with the strenuous desire that tranquillity and harmony may encircle all this warring world. So will success crown your efforts, and with the universal brotherhood will come the Kingdom of God in peace and goodwill." - Abdu'l Baha

Brahma Kumari

I let the body sit quietly ...

Consciously, I let the body relax...

I allow any tension in the muscles to dissolve.

I become aware of my own breath
... and my breath becomes deeper and calmer ...

As my body returns to a state of order and harmony, I focus my attention inside; that is, inside my mind.

As I look inwards and just observe my thoughts, they begin to slow down.

I can be selective and choose only to have thoughts that I want to have...

I choose thoughts of peace ... and I hold peace in my mind.

In this awareness of peace, I begin to see the Being who is the Supreme ...

A Being of Light ... A Being of Truth ... A Being of Beauty.

I enter the presence of God ... and let His light touch me ... fill me

God's light is the light of love ... a love that is pure ... totally accepting ... unconditional...

I absorb this pure love within my being.

I know that I belong to God ... and that this is a connection of eternity... this is a relationship that is forever...

This love is a love that cleanses... a love that heals... a love that empowers... a love that transforms... a love that guides me.

With the power of God's love I am able to shed the layers of dust that I had accumulated.

The power of this love awakens my own original truth and beauty.

The power of this love connects me with every other soul...

this is my eternal family – the whole of humanity.

The power of this love reaches out and touches other souls, awakening them.

The power of this love touches nature ... and nature is healed and restored to a state of harmony.

God's love ... God's truth ... and God's beauty - transforms everything.

I stay in the awareness of this eternal connection...

And experiencing my original qualities, I become a conduit to share peace, love and light with the world.

Om Shanti

Buddhist

Extempore meditation using these themes:

May all sentient beings have happiness and its causes,

May all sentient beings be free from suffering and its causes,

May all sentient beings never be separated from sorrowless bliss,

May all sentient beings abide in equanimity, free of bias, both greed and hatred.

"Let us meditate on compassion by visualising a sentient being who is suffering from acute pain or is in a very unfortunate situation. Then try to relate that being to yourself and think that he or she has the same capacity as you do for experiencing pain, joy, happiness, and suffering. Then simply focus on the unfortunate state of that being's existence, on the intense suffering, and try to develop a natural feeling of compassion toward that sentient being. Let the natural compassion arise in you toward that sentient being."

Christian

Readings from Advices and Queries, part of the book called Quaker Faith and Practice. Advices and Queries should be a challenge and inspiration to Friends in their personal lives and in their life as a religious community.

Take heed, dear Friends, to the promptings of love and truth in your hearts. Trust them as the leadings of God whose Light shows us our darkness and brings us to new life.

Bring the whole of your life under the ordering of the spirit of Christ. Are you open to the healing power of God's love? Cherish that of God within you, so that this love may grow in you and guide you. Let your worship and your daily life enrich each other. Treasure your experience of God, however it comes to you. Remember that Christianity is not a notion but a way...

We are called to live 'in the virtue of that life and power that takes away the occasion of all wars'. Do you faithfully maintain our testimony that war and the preparation for war are inconsistent with the spirit of Christ? Search out whatever in your own way of life may contain the seeds of war. Stand firm in our testimony, even when others commit or prepare to commit acts of violence, yet always remember that they too are children of God.

Bring into God's light those emotions, attitudes and prejudices in yourself which lie at the root of destructive conflict, acknowledging your need for forgiveness and grace. In what ways are you involved in the work of reconciliation between individuals, groups and nations?

Advices and Queries, paragraphs 1, 2, 32 and 33

Hindu

There is a great emphasis on peace in the world. Many countries and institutions claim to be working or acting to create peace. Peace is not only achieved by material fulfilment but also it is the goal of spiritual attainment. It is attained by being contented and not by being greedy.

The Verdas are the main sources of Hinduism. Rig Veda Sama Veda, Yajur Veda and Atharva Veda, all teach peace and universal brotherhood "in whatever directions, I turn my eyes, I look upon everyone my friend." Personal attachment, selfish interest and ambition, can only cause sorrow and suffering. When, one is for all, and all are for one, there can be nothing but peace (Atharva Veda Page 23/24)

Truth is the basic element of peace. Veda talks about peace not only for the human society but for the whole universe.

The translation:

May there be peace in heaven. Peace in the atmosphere. Peace across the waters. May there be peace on earth. May peace flow from herbs, plants and trees. May enlightened persons distribute peace to all beings. May the Vedas spread peace everywhere; may all the objects give us peace everywhere. May that peace come to us and remain with us for ever. May there be peace, peace, peace.
(Yajur Veda Page 36/37)

Jewish

The Hebrew word for peace is SHALOM.

Peace is a concept that is central to Judaism.

Along with Truth and Justice, it is one of the key Jewish values.

The Jewish people's desire for peace has been expressed for thousands of years in our prayers and in biblical and rabbinic sources

Albert Einstein said : 'Peace cannot be kept by force. It can only be achieved by understanding'

Part of a prayer:

Grant us peace...your most precious gift. You, the eternal source of peace.

Strengthen the bonds of friendship among all peoples, all faiths and in all countries.

Through our children and our schools let us all make the world more friendly and respectful and so help increase peace for all.

SHALOM

Pagan

Paganism is an umbrella term describing those who seek the Divine in Nature and all Life. Many Pagans like to focus on the feminine aspect of the Divine.

Circle around the World, Lady
Fly to bring justice:
So we can have Peace.
Heal us, Lady,
You need no knife to make the world tremble.

Circle the children,
Make them whole,
Gently, Lady,
They are so afraid.

Circle the Peacemakers,
And those who will not harm others,
Help us, Lady,
And aid us to balance,
So we can see
The sacred truth.

Circle around those that connect,
Lady,
To bring about divine good

On the universal path:
Green, Yellow, Red, and Blue,
Speak to the four directions,
Your presence is powerful
Let us light up the world
And dissipate evil.

Fly, Lady... be with us.

Allow your presence to be gentle,
Let those who love
Bring gifts to each other.

Circle the world, Lady,
We need no knives or guns...
For you are with us.
We are honoured,
Divine Mother

One Universal Creator God. By The Grace Of The True Guru:

The One God is our father; we are the children of the One God.

You are our Guru.

Listen, friends: my soul is a sacrifice, a sacrifice to You;

O Lord, reveal to me the Blessed
Vision of Your Darshan. ||1||

Listen, friends: I am a sacrifice to the dust of Your feet.

This mind is yours, O Siblings of Destiny.

Salok, Third Mehla:

The world is going up in flames -

and save it!

Save it, and deliver it, by whatever method it takes.

The True Guru has shown the way to peace, contemplating the True
Word of the Shabad.

Prabhaatee:

First, Allah created the Light; then,
by His Creative Power, He made all mortal beings.

From the One Light, the entire universe welled up. So who is good,
and who is bad? ||1||

O people, O Siblings of Destiny, do

Songs by Kian Samari

"The Age of Light". Words by Steve Day

I try to speak about what You've done

But fear and trembling get a hold of my tongue

I try to catch it but it slips away

Wont You give me peace give me
something to say

This is the age of light, Baha'u'llah has
come.

I try to talk as my eyes fill up

How can I drink from such a beautiful cup

I tried to touch your sorrow

But it breaks my heart and it crushes my soul

This is the age of light, Baha'u'llah has
come.

There is much to do and people to see

This crazy world has got a hold on me

But don't look down and don't look up

I just keep on talking and don't give up

This is the age of light, Baha'u'llah has
come.

This is the age of light, Baha'u'llah has
come.

"Louder Until Peace Comes". Words by Rosanna Lea

Well the war won't stop til a brother puts down his gun

And a mother teaches justice to her son

And tell me how, how can we make war
of nations end

If I still say hurtful things about my friends?

And oh my brother, do you have the time?

Sing out my sister, if you can answer this question of mine:

Said isn't it time, isn't it time for peace to
come?

When most of mankind will say they're still waiting for someone

It's been two thousand years since a poor Shepherd showed us how

But all that I know is that we cannot give up now

Cos we gotta try harder, and we gotta be stronger

And we gotta love deeper, and we gotta
sing louder

Louder until peace comes

Tell me why was I born in a clean hospital bed?

When there's babies got no rooves over their heads

And tell me why, why was I given freedom for no fee?

When there's people lying in jail cells for their right to believe

And isn't it time, isn't it time for peace to come?

When all the world's children sing along to the words of the same hit songs

It's been six thousand years since a man named Krishna, He did come

And what have we learned? How to shoot automatic guns

So we gotta try harder and we gotta be
stronger

And we gotta love deeper and we gotta
sing louder

I said I'm gonna try harder and I'm gonna be stronger

And I'm gonna love deeper and I'm gonna
sing louder

Louder until peace comes

And I know peace don't come from presidents

You gotta build it in your heart

They call peace a cause but it's an effect

And it takes love to make it start

So isn't it time, isn't it time for peace to
come?

So try harder, try harder, try harder

And be stronger, be stronger, be
stronger

And love deeper, love deeper, deeper,
people love deeper

And sing louder, sing louder, sing louder,

Louder until peace comes

Until we don't need no more peace
songs

I'm gonna sing my heart out, you can sing
along

Gonna sing louder until peace comes

Louder until peace comes.

"Say: God Sufficeth". (Prayer by The Báb)

Say: God sufficeth all things above all things, and nothing in the heavens or in the earth but God sufficeth. Verily, He is in Himself the Knower, the Sustainer, the Omnipotent.

A FINAL WORD:

"Go not to the temple to put
flowers upon the feet of God;
First fill your own house with the fragrance of love.

Go not to the temple to light
candles before the altar of God;

First remove the darkness of sin
from your heart.

Go not to the temple to bow down
your head in prayer;

First learn to bow in humility before your fellow humans.

Go not to the temple to pray on
bended knees;

First bend down to lift someone who is down trodden.

Go not to the temple to ask for forgiveness for your sins;

First forgive from your heart those who have sinned against you."

(Rabindranath Tagore, First Asian Nobel Laureate in literature)

And as you go -

May the road rise to meet you

May the wind be always at your back

May the Sun shine warm upon your face

The rain fall soft upon your fields

And until we meet again

May God hold you

In the hollow of his hand.

(A Traditional Irish Blessing)
